Stop collecting academic theory and start doing the work.

Join the creative production team curating and running the Music Makers Club mini-festival. This 10-week sprint replaces traditional classroom lectures with real-world execution, giving you the exact frameworks used by industry professionals to keep tours, venues, and festivals running on schedule.

The Event Credentials:

Core Unit: BSBPMG421 Apply project time management techniques

- The Focus: Turn creative vision into structured execution on the ground.
- Hard Skills Developed: Building airtight minute-by-minute run sheets, mapping critical path timelines, live risk triage, and executing complex event schedules under pressure.

Online Power-up Unit: CUAADM311 Book rehearsal and performance venues and administer bookings

- The Focus: The ultimate back-of-house operational upgrade.
- Hard Skills Developed: End-to-end venue contracting, artist rider negotiations, stakeholder communication, and back-of-house logistics management.

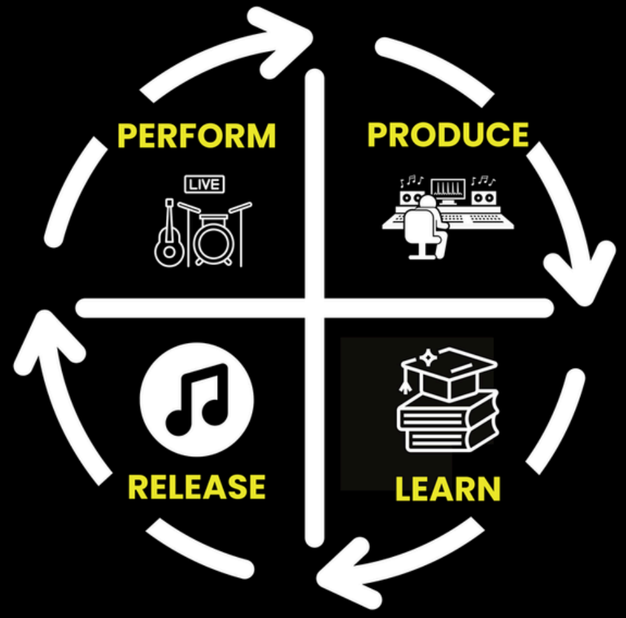
OXFORD ART FACTORY IS YOUR CAMPUS.

The 10-Week Operational Commitment



This micro-credential course requires active participation as part of a working venue crew. Review the specific investments of time and cost below to self-qualify for the upcoming intake.

- The Cost: Transparent pay-as-you-go fee structure per 10-week block. 6-month lock-in payment plan, $460 per month + Application Fee ($550)
  - Total Fees = $3,310.00
- Next Start Date: February 6th, 2027.
- The Weekly Prep (Time): One 2-hour online production meeting every week (6:00 PM – 8:00 PM). Use this time to collaborate with your crew, build the event timeline, and collect your formal assessment evidence.
- The Live Execution (Time): Mandatory on-site availability for two Wednesday shifts to actively run the Music Makers Club live at the Oxford Art Factory in Sydney.

Career Outcomes: From Volunteering to Hired

Volunteering at a festival is a great starting point, but it won't guarantee you a job. Earning this credential builds direct, demonstrable pathways into paid creative production and event management roles because you can prove to employers that you have actively managed real events. It is built to help you secure positions as a:

- Venue Operations Coordinator at major entertainment centers and live music venues.
- Booking Agent Assistant at national touring and booking agencies.
- Event Coordinator or Stage Manager for local music festivals and independent cultural events.
